

London, 16th November 2020

Current Affairs Title New Eastern Europe Launches Digital Subscriptions

Current affairs magazine New Eastern Europe has launched a digital subscription service for individuals and institutions in partnership with archiving experts Exact Editions. Subscribers will benefit from unlimited, fully-searchable access to an 8-year archive that will grow with each new issue published.

Published bi-monthly by the Jan Nowak-Jeziorański College of Eastern Europe in Wrocław, Poland, New Eastern Europe seeks to act as a voice for the region and is dedicated to reporting on Central and Eastern European affairs. The title's mission is to shape the debate, enhance understanding and further the dialogue surrounding issues facing the states that were once a part of the Soviet Union or under its influence, featuring commentary and analysis from journalists, historians and political figures.

The brand new digital resource can be read, browsed and shared across web, iOS and Android devices, providing readers with seamless cross-platform access. The Exact Editions platform's comprehensive search function allows references to key terms to be found instantly amongst the 40 issues that currently make up the archive.

New Eastern Europe is available in the Exact Editions individuals and institutional shops here:

Individuals: <https://shop.exacteditions.com/new-eastern-europe>

Institutions: <https://institutions.exacteditions.com/new-eastern-europe>

Editor-in-Chief Adam Reichardt commented: "The digital issues are made brilliantly readable by the platform's intuitive features, including the powerful search function that really enhances the user experience."

Managing Director of Exact Editions, Daryl Rayner, said: "The pertinent analytical content accessible in the new archive of New Eastern Europe cements its place as an important educational tool that will be welcomed by all those studying or with an interest in Central and Eastern Europe."

About Jan Nowak-Jeziorański College of Eastern Europe:

The Jan Nowak-Jeziorański College of Eastern Europe was founded in February 2001 by Jan Nowak-Jeziorański, a democratic activist, the legendary "Courier from Warsaw", the long-time director of the Polish section of Radio Free Europe and the former vice president of the Polish-American Congress. The College of Eastern Europe is a non-profit, non-partisan organisation based in Wrocław, a city, which, Nowak-Jeziorański once said, "with its root in the East is a strategic outpost in the struggle for a better and safer future for Poland".

About Exact Editions:

Exact Editions is a digital publishing company based in London. It is a team of producers, developers and designers that turns periodicals with archives into dynamic, user-friendly digital editions. Exact Editions specialises in digitising content, selling subscriptions and providing streaming solutions across web, iOS and Android platforms. Exact Editions are also the innovators of 'Reading Rooms' technology, so publishers can provide streaming, time-limited, access to digital editions.