Equinox Supports the 2021 Missouri Library Association Annual Conference

Atlanta, Ga., September 28, 2021: Equinox Open Library Initiative, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and a trusted leader in providing open source technology services for libraries is proud to support the 2021 Missouri Library Association Annual Conference in St. Louis, Missouri. The conference will take place from September 29 through September 30, 2021. Full conference details can be found on the conference website: <http://molib.org/conference/2021-mla-conference/>

Equinox provides hosting and support for the Missouri Evergreen Consortium, a growing resource-sharing consortium founded in 2012 to create an integrated library system for libraries in Missouri. Equinox has been supporting the consortium and its 55 systems, encompassing 141 libraries, since 2019. The Missouri Evergreen Consortium is hosting two events for community members, both on Wednesday, September 29th: the Evergreen Members Conference for Missouri Evergreen Library Users and the Missouri Evergreen Open Forum, providing an opportunity to learn more about how the "Missouri Evergreen Consortium brings together Missouri public libraries to strengthen and promote excellent library services to our member libraries and Missouri citizens." "We are proud to support the Missouri Library Association, librarians, staff, and the Missouri Evergreen Consortium as you are 'Charting the Future Together' at the MLA Annual Conference in St. Louis," said Lisa Carlucci, Executive Director, Equinox Open Library Initiative. "Equinox believes that an active open source community is part of that future and we appreciate the opportunity to serve Missouri Libraries."
